

The Residency Seminar Committee presents:
Pharmacist Burnout: How Do We Stop the Burn?
A Knowledge-Based Activity

Brianna McQuade, PharmD, BCACP

Academic/Family Medicine Research Fellow
UIC College of Pharmacy

Thursday, June 6, 2019

12:30 pm – 1:20 pm

Live Presentation: UIC College of Pharmacy Chicago - Room # 134-1

Live Broadcast: UIC College of Pharmacy Rockford - Room # E223

Target Audience: Pharmacists

Learning Objectives:

At the completion of this activity, the participant will be able to:

- Explain the impact of healthcare provider burnout in pharmacists
- Discuss the available literature on professional burnout in pharmacy practice
- Identify mechanisms to combat burnout in pharmacists

Fees: There is no charge for attending this activity.

Disclosure: The speakers, planning committee members, and reviewers who contributed to this activity have no actual or potential conflicts of interest to disclose.

Statement of Continuing Pharmacy Education Credit:

The University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) as a provider of continuing pharmacy education. This activity has been assigned ACPE Universal Activity Number 0016-0000-19-035-L04-P for 1.0 contact hours (0.1 CEUs). Attendance at the entire knowledge based activity, completion of the evaluation, and submission of NABP eProfile ID and MMDD are prerequisites for receiving continuing pharmacy education credit(s). All ACPE credit awarded to participants must be uploaded to CPE Monitor™ within 30 days of the activity date, so pharmacists are required to provide their e-Profile ID and date of birth (MMDD) at the time of the activity. Please contact aquarl2@uic.edu if you do not see activity information listed within 30 days. For more information and to set up your e-Profile visit: www.MyCPEmonitor.net.